Supernatural Occurrence at Local School

Yesterday, a supernatural occurrence happened at local school, Rushmore High. The supernatural event was reported to have taken place at 11am yesterday morning. The occurrence was known to be created by a boy named Jackson Peterson (aged 13) but no one knows for sure if it was him. The evidence, which is still being investigated, remains inconclusive.

The corridors of Rushmore High were covered in chaos, mess and destruction. Papers littered the floor, juice cartoons created messy puddles and smashed glass mirrors added to the destruction. It was claimed that this was all the work of 13-year-old Jackson Peterson, that he had simply run rampage through the school. When Jackson was interviewed (later that day) he claimed that he heard echoes as he rose to his feet in the destruction. Photographic evidence clearly shows the boy was the last one in the building. The teacher was also in the building with the boy, but CCTV shows she was in her classroom the whole time. This means that Peterson is the main suspect, but investigators still can't be sure.

People in the community, who are unaware of his powers, are convinced that this event was caused by the boy due to all the evidence that has been shown. This is backed up by the fact that Jackson is a mischievous boy. However, his parents are shocked at the events he has caused. Jackson's mum Lisa Peterson, age 46, spoke to our reporter " I am really cross that my boy would have caused something like this and the only way we found out was when we were watching the news, but I am his mum and I have not seen him since, I am so worried!” We were also lucky enough to speak to the teacher who witnessed the event, she told us, “ I walked out of my classroom and I saw the boy surrounded in all the mess I knew about his powers I knew it was him!”

Police detectives continue to investigate the scene and analyse fingerprints and CCTV. Meanwhile Jackson is either still on the run, missing or decided to leave the area. His parents remain anxious and worried about his whereabouts. They are appealing for any information on Jackson Peterson.
