AND Romulus and Remus Read and then answer questions. This will be marked together this afternoon.
WRITING	---	We were supposed to be starting some work looking at wolves and researching & writing about them. For this short week, let's try and start some of this.	Research about wolves – use the videos/ information on the class home learning page. Make notes from the Wolf Booklet or use the paper copy, which has been made available.	Draft a short fact-file presenting how you wish and what might be easier, i.e. write, poster, Ppt, booklet.	Write up your short fact-file making sure you have checked for spelling and redraft/ add any new parts.

PROJECT	---	---	Let your imagination go wild! Complete a short creative project based on wolves. Look at the ideas below but you can come up with whatever sparks your interest or passion. Use the information you have learnt in English and there are some Wolf Fact Cards here too. • Art work or puppet show • Wolf story, i.e. consider wolves in other stories such as Little Red Riding Hood • Create a wanted poster for the wolf in The Three Little Pigs • Film a response to an escaped wolf • Recount about seeing wolves at The Wild Place • Quiz based on wolf facts Get ready to share some of the work you have been doing in our afternoon meetings!
