

You don't need to print this out as you could just write the answers in your book.

Active and Passive Voice

(1) Write whether each sentence is active (A) or passive (P).

- a. The stones were thrown by Summer.
- b. A protest was held by the villagers.
- c. The mice scared the elephants.
- d. The old castle is haunted by ghosts.
- e. The cat pounced on the cat.

(2) Read this sentence: The superheroes saved the city from the raging fire.

- a. Who is doing the action?
- b. Complete the passive form of this sentence.

The city from the raging fire by the superheroes.

(3) These are written in active voice. Rewrite these sentences as passive sentences.

My sister spilt the custard.

The astronauts discovered a new planet.

The zoo-keeper released the tiger.

Sam baked a large, birthday cake.

(4) These are written in passive voice. Rewrite these sentences as active sentences.

The football was kicked by Luke.

The gun was left in the cupboard by the thief.

The milk had been knocked over by the cat.

The car had been driven into a wall by a naughty child.