

FILL IN THE GAP

WS MON

Read the sentences and choose the correct word or words to fill the gap.

Victims' fear for their safety and wellbeing, and often their critically reduced _____ may mean they feel unable to speak out.

Talk to the victim and try to make them feel _____.

This may be done _____, as cyber-bullying.

Many _____ companies too now encourage users to report incidents of abuse and bullying online.

By law, every state school must have a _____ in place to achieve this.

Victims often start _____ themselves and feel increasingly insecure.

It can seriously affect both _____ and mental health.

If this _____ does not seem to be taking action, tell another.

Students should feel _____ reporting bullying and should know how to do it.

Both bullies and their victims may develop _____ problems as a result of bullying.

Friends can help to prevent bullying simply with their _____: bullies are less likely to attack in front of witnesses.

Bullies can also attack using others, by spreading rumours or causing _____.

They may even feel _____ and feel unable to live with the shame they have been forced to feel.

As we get _____ and experience new situations, bullying can change form.

Like many _____ problems, the effects of bullying can creep up on people.