

Label the description with the correct type of bullying: physical, verbal, emotional or cyber.

making the victim feel guilty punching someone making threats spreading rumours threatening to withdraw affection writing nasty things online

Label the description with the correct type of bullying: physical, verbal, emotional or cyber.

repeatedly tripping someone over manipulating someone's feelings making someone feel worthless sending a nasty message on social media insulting someone scratching someone

Label the description with the correct person, place or organisation.

required to have an anti-bullying policy a person being bullied people being bullied should tell now allow users to report abuse bullying is often discussed here

MATCHING

WS TUE

Label the description making

Draw a line with a ruler to match the information.

definition of bullying	online verbal bullying	long-term problems bullying can cause	being repeatedly cruel to someone cyber-bullying happens	using insults may also cause bullying behaviour	humiliation form of bullying	helped bullies can be	become bullies people who have been bullied may	family issues, stress and trauma bullies may enjoy	an anti-bullying policy bullying is	their power form of bullying	repetitive and intentional every state school must have	threats it is vital to	hide their real names bullying can be	stand against bullying form of bullying	being violent online bullies may	subtle emotional bullying	at work victims may feel	close emotional connections to their victims bullies in positions of power	guilty or worthless bullies may call victims	weak, odd or stupid