

MATCHING

form of bullying	being repeatedly cruel to someone verbal bullying	using insults
bullying can cause	long-term problems
cyber-bullying happens	online
may also cause bullying behaviour	family issues, stress and trauma form of bullying	humiliation
bullies can be	helped
people who have been bullied may	become bullies
bullies may enjoy	their power
bullying is	repetitive and intentional
form of bullying	threats
every state school must have	an anti-bullying policy
it is vital to	stand against bullying
bullying can be	subtle
form of bullying	being violent online bullies may	hide their real names emotional bullying	close emotional connections to their victims
victims may feel	guilty or worthless
bullies in positions of power	at work
bullies may call victims	weak, odd or stupid

LABEL

- | | |
|--------------|----------------------------|
| 1. emotional | 10. cyber |
| 2. physical | 11. verbal |
| 3. verbal | 12. physical |
| 4. verbal | 13. (state) school |
| 5. emotional | 14. a victim |
| 6. cyber | 15. an authority figure |
| 7. physical | 16. social media companies |
| 8. emotional | 17. school |
| 9. emotional | |