

MULTIPLE CHOICE

WS WED

Circle the correct answer for each of the following questions.

Which of the following best describes bullying?

- repetitive and intentional hurting
- accidentally nudging someone
- calling someone a name
- being a kind person

Bullying can affect people's...

- social media profile
- diet
- appearance
- mental health

What behaviour might help bullies continue to bully someone?

- name calling
- not getting involved
- laughing at them
- telling an authority figure

What might a bully give as an excuse for bullying someone?

- the victim is weak, odd or stupid
- the victim is kind
- the victim is their friend
- the victim is a boy

What must schools have in place by law to prevent bullying?

- a guard dog
- teachers on duty
- a lunchtime club
- an anti-bullying policy

Who should victims tell about bullying?

- the bully
- no one
- their dog
- a friend or family member

How can you step in to stop bullying?

- talk to the victim
- run away
- shout at the bully
- do nothing

Where does bullying often get discussed?

- in the car
- in schools
- at lunch time
- in businesses

If it is not addressed, what can bullying can result in?

- nothing
- skin problems
- self-harm and suicide
- financial problems

Who may develop long-term problems as a result of bullying?

- no one
- teachers
- bullies and victims
- friends

TRUE OR FALSE

Read the sentences. Put a tick in the correct box to show which sentences are true and which are false.

- If someone feels they are being bullied, they should tell an authority figure.
- Bullying is physical only.
- Some people become bullies because they enjoy the power.
- State schools are required by law to have an anti-bullying policy.
- Intimidation, humiliation and threats are also considered as bullying.
- Bullies may have been bullied themselves in the past.
- Victims of bullying may feel unable to speak out.
- School anti-bullying policies are shared with teachers only.
- Saying hurtful things online is considered bullying.
- Standing by when someone is bullied is a way of helping the bully.
- Emotional abuse is a form of bullying.
- Schools have a duty to prevent and deal with bullying.
- Social media is secure and bullying cannot happen there.
- Victims of bullying are normally confident enough to ask for help.

True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐
True	☐	False	☐

Circle the correct answer.