

Read the sentences and choose the correct word or words to fill the gap.

W6 MON

This life-changing experience helped to shape his belief in _____ people from different walks of life to create positive and meaningful change.

In 2009, Obama was awarded a prestigious _____ for his efforts to strengthen international diplomacy and cooperation between people.

His mother, Stanley Ann _____ (known as Ann) was from Kansas, in the United States.

Michelle Obama has become an _____ and role model for people across the world.

An estimated _____ people attended the formal ceremony to begin his presidency in Washington – thought to be the biggest ever audience for such an event.

Barack Obama was succeeded as President of the United States by _____ in 2016.

Since leaving office, he and his wife _____, whom he met at a Chicago law firm, have continued to campaign for causes close to their heart, supporting and inspiring others.

With the help of loans and _____, Obama worked his way through college before later moving to Chicago.

Throughout his time in the White House, Obama helped to revitalise the _____ of the country, reform the health-care system and withdraw troops from war.

Their key values and morals were later said to influence his presidency and his drive to ensure that every child, regardless of _____, was given the same chances and opportunities without prejudice.

In 2008, Obama was formally announced as the _____ nominee for President of the United States.

With his election, he became the first _____ president of the country and went on to lead it through a period of turmoil and anxiety.

Obama took up what is arguably the world's most important job at an extremely problematic time in _____, but immediately made his priorities clear.

After graduating, Barack began to teach constitutional law: the study, practice, interpretation and administration of laws based on the _____ constitution.

Obama later attended the prestigious _____, in Cambridge, Massachusetts near Boston.