

MATCHING

German cruiser	Moltke
bloody battlefields	Belgium and France
bombarded town	Hartlepool propaganda poster	'Men of Britain'
Theophilus Jones	Battalion of Durham Light Infantry
fired back at German ships	Heugh Battery gun important to war effort	shipyards killed on British soil	Theophilus Jones
prayer book	shard of a shell
Heugh Battery military museum	led by volunteers attack began as	people headed to work and school
1,100 shells rained down	16 December 1914
18th	Battalion of the Durham Light Infantry
1917	first true air raid
1918	war ended
130	people killed in Hartlepool
propaganda	information promoting a political point of view
'Men of Britain'	'Will you stand this?'
survivors recall	chaos
Zeppelins	German airships

LABEL

- (more than) 1,100
- 1 / One / I
- three
- forty minutes
- eleventh
- Germany
- Blücher
- Heugh
- Theophilus Jones
- Leicestershire
- Gotha bomber (aircraft)
- streets attacked by German ships: Moor Terrace / Victoria Place / Cliff Terrace
- battle cruisers used by the Germans: Seydlitz / Moltke
- armoured cruiser used by the Germans: Blücher