

Mission Masters

29.2

Agenda for today's meeting:

- Junior Reading Team
- Teach like a champion-
Discuss ways for peers to acknowledge ideas, thumbs up, etc.
- Discuss 'playpod leaders.'
- A.O.B

Discussion points
	We welcomed Holly as a Mission Master for Rowan Class.
Junior Reading Team	Each Mission Master listened to 2 younger children read.
Discuss 'playpod leaders.'	I asked the Mission Masters to discuss how we could appoint 'playpod leaders' and what their job would be. There will be 4 KS1 and 4 KS2 playpod leader. A few Mission Masters suggested that we should watch the children during lunchtimes to see who is showing respect for the equipment and who is helping to tidy up. I have asked the Mission Masters to keep an eye out during playtimes the first couple of weeks back, we will discuss during the first meeting back after Easter. We discussed the role of the 'playpod leaders:' 1)Check that the equipment is not left out. 2)Ensure it is kept tidy, MM have said that the pod is not always tidy and hard to access. 3)Come up with rules that work for Blackhorse. 4)Make a list of 'dry only' equipment. Some children felt that some equipment is spoilt if it is damp.

	5) Give out stickers for respectful play and great tidying up. They would like to make their own stickers. 6) KS2 felt that it wasn't fair that they have to tidy up all of the KS1 equipment, we said that we would discuss this further.
Teach like a champion- Discuss ways for peers to acknowledge ideas, thumbs up, etc.	Mission Master came up with ideas about how we can give peer acknowledgement during lessons. 1) Nod of a head. 2) Click fingers. 3) Thumbs up. We discussed the different ideas and which ones would be least disruptive. We decided the thumbs up would work well.
Actions Red-Mission Masters Green-Me	- Look out for potential 'playpod leader' during playtimes, to be discussed during the next Mission Master meeting. - Discuss playpod appointment and role with Mrs T. - Discuss peer acknowledgement during next staff meeting.
