

Mission Masters

8.2

Agenda for today's meeting:

- Remind of 'class ambassadors' role
- School Values-definitions for values.
- Children's Mental Health week-discuss plans for extended playtime tomorrow and fundraising.

Discussion points
	A number of children had collated lists for clubs and free reading books. They had spoken to various children in the school to make these lists.
Children's Mental Health week extended playtime	We discussed what had happened so far this week and then made a plan for the extended playtime tomorrow. The Mission Masters suggested a number of different activities that would support mental health. We decided on: 1)Colouring 2)Penalty Shoot 3)Yoga 4)Reading 5)Circuit with various stations along the way Each Mission Master decided which activity they would support. The Mission Masters met with Mr Fry/Mrs Taylor and Mr Botten to discuss plans for tomorrow. The Mission Masters then prepped the activities and checked balls were pumped up/football nets available, etc. Mrs Taylor has asked the Mission Masters to think about how 'playpod leaders' can be appointed and what the role will be.
School Values-definitions for values	We discussed what each value means. The Mission Masters then spoke to KS1 children to find out if they know what the school values are and what each of the values represent. We will continue with this next time.

Actions Red-Mission Masters Green-Me	-Meet tomorrow to set up and run children's mental health extended playtime. -Mission Masters to think about how 'playpod leaders' can be appointed and what the role will be. -Email staff info for the extended playtime. -Follow up meeting with Mrs Phillips to discuss progress of reading suggestions. -Plan times for 'class ambassador' to practise role.
